Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer.

The Company and certain former Aldabra stockholders, including Mr. Weiss, and certain other stockholders of the Company entered into an investor rights agreement on December 26, 2006. The investor rights agreement provides for certain registration rights with respect to shares held by the former Aldabra stockholders, including Mr. Weiss, who are party to the investor rights agreements (the "Aldabra Registrable Securities"). After February 17, 2008, holders of at least a majority of Aldabra Registrable Securities will have the right to demand registration under the Securities Act of all or any portion of their registrable securities subject to certain amount and time limitations. Holders of the Aldabra Registrable Securities may demand one long-form registration and one short-form registration. Additionally, whenever the Company proposes to register any of its securities under the Securities Act and the registration form to be used may be used for the registration of registrable securities, holders of Aldabra Registrable Securities will have the right to request the inclusion of their registrable securities in such registration. The investor rights agreement prohibits a public sale by any person of any registrable securities or equity securities of the Company during the seven days prior and the 90 days after the effectiveness of any underwritten public offering, except as part of such offering or as otherwise permitted by the Company.

The investor rights agreement is incorporated by reference in Exhibit C hereto.

All of the shares of Common Stock that were issued to the founders of Aldabra, including Mr. Weiss, in exchange for their Aldabra common stock that was issued prior to Aldabra's initial public offering, were placed in escrow with Continental Stock Transfer & Trust Company, as escrow agent, until the earliest of: (i) February 17, 2008 or (ii) the consummation of a liquidation, merger, stock exchange or other similar transaction which results in all of the Company's stockholders having the right to exchange their shares of Common Stock for cash, securities or other property subsequent to the Company consummating a business combination with a target business.

During the escrow period, these shares cannot be sold, but the holders of these shares will retain all other rights as stockholders, including, without limitation, the right to vote their shares of Common Stock and the right to receive cash dividends, if declared. If dividends are declared and payable in shares of Common Stock, such dividends will also be placed in escrow.

The escrow agreement is incorporated by reference in Exhibit D hereto.

Except for the investor rights agreement and the escrow agreement described above, to the best knowledge of Mr. Weiss, there are no contracts, arrangements, understandings or relationships (legal or otherwise) between himself and any other person, with respect to any securities of the Company, including, but not limited to, transfer or voting of any of the securities, finder's fees, joint ventures, loan or option agreements, puts or calls, guarantees of profits, divisions of profits or loss, or the giving or withholding of proxies.
